Subject: Your WorkSafeBC account, effective January 05, 2010

Welcome to WorkSafeBC, where you will find a wealth of resources to help you create a safe and healthy workplace. Your premiums contribute to the cost of health care, rehabilitation and compensation for workers who suffer work-related injuries, helping them return to productive lives. In return, you are protected against lawsuits by workers who suffer these occupational injuries and diseases.

Here is a summary of your account information:

Account number	Business number	Class number	Class description	2010 rate	2011 rate
840884-AQ (019)	83983 3662 BWFC001	732019	General Trucking	4.85	N/A

As an employer, you have certain obligations, such as keeping your account up to date and complying with the Workers Compensation Act and Occupational Health and Safety Regulation. To keep your account up to date, you need to report your payroll to us and pay premiums. It's also your responsibility to report changes in your firm's operations, maintain a safe workplace, understand the claims process, and do what you can to assist an injured worker to return to work safely.

We will send you forms four times a year, which you will need to complete to calculate premiums for your worker coverage. Your payroll reports and your payments will be due April 20, July 20, October 20, and January 20. You will also receive an Employer Payroll and Contract Labour Report once a year to reconcile your account. This report will be due February 28.

While you can report your payroll and pay your premiums with your form, you can also file payroll reports and make payments online at WorkSafeBC.com, or by calling 1 877 FilePay (1 877 345-3729). For more information, including the financial and clearance benefits of these options, visit our web site.

You can also pay at your bank, by mail, or in person at any WorkSafeBC office. For personal assistance, contact our Employer Service Centre during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, at 1 888 922-2768 or 604 244-6181.

If you operate as a proprietorship or partnership, the proprietors or partners of your firm will not receive workers' compensation benefits in the event of an injury unless they have Personal Optional Protection (POP) coverage. If you would like to add POP coverage to your account in the future, please apply on our web site or contact our Employer Service Centre.

Please have your account number handy when contacting the Employer Service Centre.
